

TINTINHULL PARISH COUNCIL

NEW PARISH COUNCIL WEBSITE

The Parish Council will be having a new web site designed by Vision ICT. The change is partly due to the new General Data Protection Regulations and the Council will need to have total control of the information on the website. There will be a page for Community Information where Clubs and Organisations in the parish can send in their details and once vetted, information will be included on the web site plus any link to their own web site if the Club or Organisation has one. There will be a copy of the Council's Privacy Policy on the new website however, if you would like a copy before the web site is up and running, please contact the Clerk

HEDGEHOG TALK

The newly reformed Somerset Mammal Group have organised a talk called 'The Hedgehog Predicament' by wildlife photographer and ecologist Colin Varndell in Tintinhull Village Hall.

The talk is about the natural history of hedgehogs, the causes of their decline and what we can do to help. We will also be sharing how people can get involved with their Somerset Mammal Group hedgehog survey,

The talk is on Friday 31st August from 19:30 until 21:00
